

Be Creative @ Your Library 2009 Five and Under Summer Reading Program Instructions

- Beginning June 1, children may register at branch libraries or online.
- Get a gameboard at the library or print one out at home.
- Kids and parents will complete the gameboard activities together. Check each one off as it is completed.
- Use the back of your gameboard if you would like to record the books you've read this summer. For book ideas, check out our Booklists for young children.
- Once you have completed activities 1 – 10, bring your gameboard to a branch library for your first column prize.
- When you have completed activities 11 – 20, bring your gameboard to a branch library for your second column prize, your prize for completing the program and a Certificate of Completion.
- When redeeming the food coupon prizes, children must be accompanied by parents.
- You have until August 31 to complete the program.
- Check out the list of Summer Reading Events being presented at libraries this summer. The programs especially suitable for preschoolers are marked.
- The special Summer Reader Bowie Baysox game is Sunday, July 26 at 6:00 pm. Children and their families should arrive before 5:30 pm for the Summer Reading participants parade.
- T-Shirts are available at branch libraries: Children's sizes cost $6.36 and Adult sizes are $7.42 (these prices include tax).
- The Library would like to thank our Summer Reading Sponsors: The Bowie Baysox, Chick-Fil-A, Rita's, Imagination Stage, The Baltimore Orioles, Friends of the Accokeek Library, Friends of the Baden Library, Friends of the Beltsville Library, Friends of the Bladensburg Library, Friends of the Bowie Library, Friends of the Fairmount Heights Library, Friends of the Glenarden Library, Friends of the Greenbelt Library, Friends of the Hillcrest Heights Library, Friends of the Hyattsville Library, Friends of the Largo-Kettering Library, Friends of the Laurel Library, Friends of the Mount Rainier Library, Friends of the New Carrollton Library, Friends of the Oxon Hill Library, Friends of the Spauldings Library, Friends of the Surratts-Clinton Library, and Friends of the Upper Marlboro Library.
